

Heather M. Hill

Heather M. Hill is the Acting Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA).

Ms. Hill's permanent position within TIGTA is Deputy Inspector General for Audit. In that position, she leads a program that conducts independent oversight audits of the Internal Revenue Service. TIGTA audits make recommendations to improve Federal tax administration and address Internal Revenue Service management challenges in the areas of data and employee security, computer modernization, tax law compliance and complexity, human capital, and improper and erroneous payments.

Ms. Hill previously served TIGTA as Deputy Inspector General for Inspections and Evaluations. Prior to that position, she served as TIGTA's Assistant Inspector General for Audit, Management Services and Exempt Organizations and as the Director, Special Tax Matters for TIGTA's Office of Inspections and Evaluations.

Prior to joining TIGTA in 2011, Ms. Hill was an analyst at the Government Accountability Office, where she worked on a range of energy and agricultural issues as part of the Natural Resources and Environment team. She also led investigations into fraud and abuse of Government programs as part of the Forensic Audits and Special Investigations team.

Ms. Hill graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor of Arts in Government and a Master of Public Affairs from the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs. Ms. Hill also has a Master of Science in Social Science Research Methods from the University of Cardiff, Wales.
